

BAND COACH ONLY - SESSION 1 & 2

DUTIES

Band Coaches will be assigned to a “band” of 5 campers to:

- Help campers compose a song during band rehearsals (typically 2 coaches are assigned to each band)
- Be present during Monday morning activities to greet campers, help with way-finding and participate in “morning energizers”/group activity
- Assist campers during studio recording on Friday
- Provide general supervision and emotional support to the campers in your band at all times during work hours. Band coaches are responsible for the 5 campers in their band. Band coaches should know where these campers are at all times during scheduled work hours. If you have 2 coaches per band and one coach needs to step out for a moment, be sure to communicate this to your co-coach.
- Assist with gear movement, room set up for your band before rehearsal begins
- Assist with dismissal of campers at the end of the day, making sure all campers depart with an approved adult
- Attend and participate in discussions at staff debriefing
- Communicate with band coaches/girl power coach if concerns arise over the well-being/behavior of any camper(s) that they are supervising/supporting
- Collaborate and communicate effectively with your co-coach and other staff members to role-model healthy interactions

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE

Previous experience working collaboratively/co-creating with other musicians, and songwriting/composition experience required. Recording studio experience helpful. Previous experience working with/mentoring children helpful.
