

DUAL ROLE - BAND COACH/INSTRUMENT INSTRUCTOR FOR SESSION 1 & 2

DUTIES

Band Coach/Instrument Instructor for Session 1 & 2 will:

- Help campers compose a song during band rehearsals (you will be assigned to a band of 5 campers with a co-coach)
- Teach campers how to play a specific instrument (vocals, guitar, bass, keys, drums, violin etc) during instrument instruction
- Assist with gear movement and room set up for instrument instruction (includes setting up, plugging in gear, tuning instruments etc.)
- Assist with stage set up and stage management at showcase (as needed)
- Assist campers during studio recording on Friday
- Provide general supervision and emotional support to the campers in your band at all times during work hours. This means you are responsible for the 5 campers in your band and should know where these campers are at all times during scheduled work hours. If you have 2 coaches per band and one coach needs to step out for a moment, be sure to communicate this to your co-coach.
- Assist with gear movement, room set up for your band before rehearsal begins
- Assist with dismissal of campers at the end of the day, making sure all campers depart with an approved adult
- Attend and participate in discussions at staff debriefing
- Collaborate and communicate effectively with your co-coach and other staff members to role-model healthy interactions

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE

Proficiency on instrument on which you are instructing and ability to teach that instrument to children. Previous experience working collaboratively/co-creating with other musicians, and songwriting/composition experience required. Recording studio experience helpful. Previous experience working with/mentoring children helpful.
