

SESSION 3 - COACH/DJ/TECH/INSTRUMENT INSTRUCTOR

DUTIES

Instructors for Session 3 will:

- BAND COACH/INSTRUMENT INSTRUCTOR: provide instruction on your assigned instrument and help campers compose a song during band rehearsals (you may be assigned to a band of 5 campers with a co-coach or take a band as a solo coach)
- DJ INSTRUCTOR: help campers learn DJ software and gear and prepare a DJ set for the showcase
- TECH INSTRUCTOR: Tech Instructor, help campers learn audio and video tech and prepare a video for the showcase
- Assist with gear movement and room set up for instruction (includes setting up, plugging in gear, tuning instruments etc.)
- Assist with stage set up and stage management at showcase
- Teach a breakout session (topic of your choosing with assistance of Music Director) twice during the week
- Be present during Monday morning activities to greet campers, help with way-finding and participate in “morning energizers”/group activity
- Assist campers during studio recording on Friday (band coaches only)
- Provide general supervision and emotional support to the campers in your band at all times during work hours. This means you are responsible for the 5 campers in your band and should know where these campers are at all times during scheduled work hours. If you have 2 coaches per band and one coach needs to step out for a moment, be sure to communicate this to your co-coach.
- Assist with dismissal of campers at the end of the day, making sure all campers depart with an approved adult
- Attend and participate in discussions at staff debriefing
- Collaborate and communicate effectively with your fellow instructors and other staff members to role-model healthy interactions

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE

Previous experience working collaboratively/co-creating with other musicians, and songwriting/composition experience, instrument instruction experience, or DJ, or Tech experience required. Recording studio experience helpful. Previous experience working with/mentoring children helpful.
